A prominent Sonoma gentleman was in town last Monday in quest of Archie McKiver's scalp. It may be interesting to this inquirer to know that Archie at one time stood off J. L. Sullivan for four rounds in Boston, twenty years ago, so he had better take warning.

A party of joy riders from Boyes Springs met with an accident while driving through town last Sunday in the bus belonging to the late at the Springs. There is some talk of having a night watchmen in our town, and several applicants have already entered their names for the position, but it now looks like a dark horse will land the job.

A brooder house on the old Lord place south of town burned down one night last week. Jake Steckmeyer discovered the flames and hastening over found upon arriving that P. Boche and family, who were asleep in an adjoining house, were unaware of the fire. They were at once awakened, but the flames had gained such headway that the entire building was consumed.

Peebles orchestra of San Francisco will furnish the music and one of the largest crowds of party-going people from San Francisco and other places are expected that ever assembled at an opening. Mr. Lamotte extends an invitation to all.

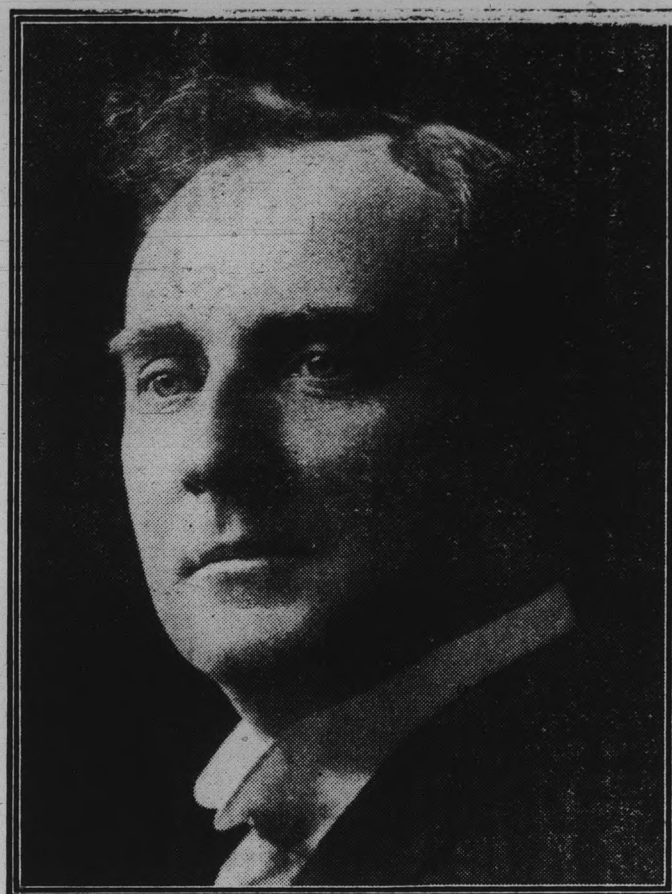

There was wild excitement in town last Friday night. Our summer people and also our residents here on gazette at the heavens could see far up in the sky a light and they thought at first that it was Parmalee, the French aviator, or some other noted sky man passing through the valley in a flying machine. It was only Eugene Dutil flying a kite with a light attached to it. Gene is working on a patent and if the invention comes out all right it will be seen far up in the sky soaring over our town in the near future.

ARCHIBALD MCKIVER, El Verano, May 30, 1912.

JUDGE CLIFTON H. CONNICK OF HUMBOLDT VISITS SONOMA

Is Making an Active Campaign for the Republican Nomination for Congressman to Represent the First District

Clifton H. Connick, Judge of the Superior Court of Humboldt County, and one of the most prominent Republicans in Eureka, is in town Monday fixing his political fences, for he is known the Judge after elbowing Congressman Wm. Kent aside some months ago, is after the office himself. Judge Connick is a progressive—a regular died-in-the-wool insurgent—but for all that he appears to be honest in his convictions, which is more than we can say of Governor Johnson and the political machine he has built up in this state the past two years. Judge Connick, who is asking the support of all Republicans in the First District for the Congress, was born in St. Stephen, New Brunswick, in 1871. Two years after his birth, his parents removed to Humboldt county, bringing their youngster with them and from that day to this he has been a resident of that county. After graduating from the common schools of Humboldt county, Judge Connick entered the Hastings Law College in San Francisco, from which he graduated in the class of 1893. He then returned to Humboldt county and entered into the practice of the law, serving as Assistant District Attorney for eight consecutive years. In 1898 he was elected Superior Judge of his county by a handsome majority. Judge Connick has always been a consistent Republican and for ten years was Secretary of the Republican County Central Committee of Humboldt.

Runaway Boy.

Alfred Huddart, aged 13 years, ran away from his home in the mountains north of Agua Caliente, one day last week, and is still at large. The mother of the boy is almost distracted and any information as to his whereabouts will be greatly appreciated by Constable Joe Ryan, who is endeavoring to locate the lad.

A fine programme, dramatic and musical, is being prepared by the pupils of the Convent in Sonoma. A real treat, as usual, is promised, and all who will be present on June 11th may be assured a most enjoyable time in every way. Tickets for sale at convent and from pupils. Children under 15 years of age will be charged twenty-five cents at entrance.

DR. C. C. O'DONNELL HAS PASSED AWAY.

The Summons Came in His Home in San Francisco Last Monday Morning.

Dr. C. C. O'Donnell, one of the most picturesque characters in the history of California, passed away at his home in San Francisco early Monday morning. The aged doctor—and he had passed the eightieth mile stone in his journey through life—had been in poor health for several years. Dr. O'Donnell was a pioneer citizen of this State, having come here from Baltimore, Maryland, in the early days, and after amassing a comfortable fortune in the Northern California mines, removed to San Francisco, where for years he took a prominent part in its municipal affairs.

Eighteen or twenty years ago Dr. O'Donnell located his country home in this valley near Glen Ellen where he made many improvements and took an active part in boosting the upper portion of the Sonoma Valley. The doctor was a remarkable man in more ways than one. When most men are on the down-grade at the age of 70 years, he was as active both mentally and physically as most of his fellows under fifty. Although old in years, up to a short time of his death he was young in spirit and activity to a remarkable degree.

Dr. O'Donnell was a Carroll of Carrollton on his mother's side and through his veins coursed the proudest blue blood of the South. Dr. O'Donnell is survived by a widow and an only son, Dr. G. W. O'Donnell of San Francisco. In the passing of Dr. O'Donnell, Sonoma Valley loses a true and staunch friend.

The remains of Dr. O'Donnell were shipped to this place Wednesday for interment in Mountain Cemetery. The funeral was largely attended by relatives and friends. The local lodge of Druids, of which deceased was a member, also turned out as a body to do honor to their deceased brother.

The Good Old Summer Time is Here and Business is Good.

Now, that the Local Option agitation has ceased to be, except in a few fool cases—extreme cases where some people never know when a question is settled and refuse to be governed by the will of the majority as expressed at the ballot box—we repeat, since this agitation has ceased to be, business has commenced to pick up in both town and valley.

Notwithstanding the great injustice done the morality of Sonoma Valley by the fanatical Prohibitionists and their local converts, people are flocking into our hotels and resorts upon the arrival of every train for their annual vacation. These are not the horrible creatures pictured from pulpit and rostrum and ventilated through the columns of a purchased county press, during the recent and indecent Local Option agitation, as the off-scouring from the slums of the metropolis, but are in truth a mixed crowd of visitors, embracing the families of the working classes of San Francisco on the one hand and the wives, daughters and sisters of prominent professional and business men of the transbay cities on the other.

It may be true that among the tens of thousands who will summer in this valley this year, as in the past, a number of undesirable persons may find their way hither, but this cannot be avoided. It is so the world over and no senseless fanatical agitation by hypocrites can ever change this order of things.

Business is good in Sonoma Valley at the present time and is bound to continue so throughout the season, and everybody is rejoicing that it is so if we except a few of our ill-advised merchants who, with a woeful lack of judgment, entered into a conspiracy with the chronic mischief-maker of this valley, expecting, of course, to be on the winning side, to put out of business our summer resorts, the local brewery, ice plant and soda water works, representing in the aggregate an investment of over a million and a half dollars of local capital. But with the good old summer times with us once more one can afford to be lenient and even give those who really do not deserve it, a chance to share this property with their more generous and liberal-minded fellows.

Two Expensive Banquets.

The costliest meal ever served, according to history, was a supper given by Aelius Verus, one of the most lavish of all the Romans of the latter days, to a dozen guests. The cost was 6,000 sesteria, which would amount to $242,500. A celebrated feast given by Vitellius, a Roman emperor of those days, to his brother Lucius cost a little more than $200,000. Suetonius says that the banquet consisted of 2,000 different dishes of fish and 7,000 different fowls, besides other courses.

The Sporting Constable.

"Well," said the constable after some parley with Jinks, "I reckon I know speed when I see speed, and, by gum, I'll bet ye half a dollar ye was goin' faster'n the law allows." "I'll bet, yon I wasn't," said Jinks. "And there's the money." He paid the constable the half dollar and resumed his journey. "There is somethin' in this sportin' life after all," chuckled the constable as he placed the coin in his pocket.—Exchange.

Made It Longer.

The judge frowned. "You are sentenced to forty-three years at hard labor in the state penitentiary," he said. "That's a Henry James sentence," the intelligent criminal mournfully remarked. And the judge, who was familiar with the length of the eminent novelist's sentences, added seven years more for good measure.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Earning His Sleep.

A little city girl was visiting a friend in the suburbs and was much impressed by the morning rush of her hostess' father for a certain train. "Why does your papa go to town every day?" she at last inquired. "So's to make enough money to sleep out here at night," was the unwittingly shrewd reply.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Agua Caliente, Cal., May 9th, 1912.
To the Editor of the Index-Tribune, Sonoma, Cal.:

Dear Sir:
It has been stated by certain parties that took a great interest in the late election and made every endeavor to make this district dry. These same parties have tried in every manner possible to misrepresent and injure me in my business in the past, and I make this means to inform the public that I have done and used every effort in my power to prevent the district from going dry. I make this statement to remove those false impressions that are being scattered broadcast in the last few days.
Yours truly,

TWENTY YEARS.

Makes a great difference in most women. They are troubled with "nerves"—they suffer from backache, headache, sleeplessness, a sensation of irritability or twitching, hot flashes, dizzy spells, or many other symptoms of female weakness. The local disorder and inflammation should be treated with Dr. Pierce's Lotion Tablets and the irregularity and weakness of the female system corrected and strengthened with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The strain upon the young woman or the woman of her strength. This is the time to take this restorative tonic may be too great for her strength. For over forty years sold by druggists and strength-giving nerve and regulator. The one remedy so perfect in composition and so good in curative effects as to warrant its makers in printing its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. The one remedy which absolutely contains neither alcohol nor injurious or habit-forming drugs.

Mrs. Scott.

Following letter selected at random from a large number of similar ones and cited merely to illustrate these remarks:
"In the winter of 1908, I became greatly run down and irregular, writes Mrs. HEAVY SCOTT, of Swan Creek, Mich., Route 1, Box 49. I slowly but surely grew worse, and, at last, resolved to apply to the doctor. I was in bed eleven weeks and got no better. The doctor said I would have to have an operation, but to that I would not listen. When I started to take this remedy I could not walk across the floor, but after I had taken three bottles I could feel myself gaining, so I dropped the factor and took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Only for it I think I would have been dead—I really believe it saved my life. I feel better now than in twenty years."

A T. Nelson of Vineburg transacted business in Santa Rosa Monday last.

Arnold Rieth of Penn Grove is the guest of Vineburg friends, who are always glad to see him.

Twenty-five guests are registered at the Vineyard Villa and the number is increasing every day.

Chas. Groskopf transacted business in the bay city on Monday and returned home safe the same evening.

Mrs. John Wadsworth has returned to her home on the Hyde tract after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. King of Alameda.

W. W. Erskine visited his country home on the Hyde tract Saturday and Sunday and returned to the metropolis on Monday morning.

Henry Pape, who has not been feeling well for several days on account of rheumatism, we are glad to state has resumed his duties at Pleasant Villa.

Fred. Batto of this place, Norman Heggie of Sonoma and Mr. and Mrs. Adam Gierich of the Hyde tract motored to Petaluma on Wednesday last.

Sunday was rather a quiet day in this burg at times, but we suppose it was the ideal weather for the merry month of May. That was the cause of it. May be it was.

Al Trautvetter of the Brookside poultry yards on the Hyde tract made a business trip to the Exposition City on Friday last and returned home on Saturday evening.

E. Cutter has completed his up-to-date fruit drier and from the looks of things when the season opens there will be some fruit dried in the Cutter orchard. Just leave it to Teddy.

Professor Ricci, our well-known musician, made a flying trip to San Francisco Monday and obtained some of the latest dance music. Just you wait, gals, till the next dance. What a surprise.

Thursday, May 30, 1912 Under the sod and the dew, Awaiting the judgment day; Tears and love for the Blue, Love and tears for the Gray. Viola Vineburg

The only thing that is occupying the public mind just now is who will be our next Mayor. Jim Small ought to know, and he says the fight will be between a well known horse shoer and a popular master mechanic.

Peaceful Vineburg was not so peaceful this week as on Tuesday morning the freight train brought in eight car loads of merchandise—some feed and grain and some for the Gundlach-Busch Wine Co. of Rhinefarn. Five cars of course, like San Jose, were wet.

Messrs. Schrempf, Altheanian, Perry and Form, all well-known citizens of this place, were visitors in Santa Rosa on Wednesday on legal business. B. Freeman, the popular proprietor of the Palace Hotel, Sonoma, was the man at the wheel and all returned safe and sound to home, sweet home.

Emile McCurdy returned to the Bay City Sunday afternoon after a pleasant sojourn of two weeks at Vineyard Villa. This gentleman has spent his summer vacations in this part of the valley for many years and is quite popular with all who have the pleasure of his acquaintances, especially the ladies.

It got off the late train on Sunday morning last. "I don't know where it was going. But I will try to describe it if I can." It had on white trousers, white low neck ties, pale pink socks that reached to its knees, pea green silk shirt with lace around the neck and the cuttest dinky hat I ever saw. I asked a young lady what it was and she said she thought it was a man but did not know. Neither did I.

This place is now getting to be rather sporty lately. We have a gun club, a Box Car Improvement club and now I hear we are to have an Athletic Club. It was this way. A prominent business man and leading society man, started to run a foot race Monday morning from Eighth and Denmark streets to Vineburg station to catch the train for Frisco. The business man won by three yards to the good. El Verano reporter, please make a note of it.

Great preparations are being made by Mr. and Mrs. Morris Levy of the Hotel Mervyn, Glen Ellen, to accommodate the large crowd that will take in the mask ball in Mervyn Hall this (Saturday) evening. A costumer from San Francisco has been engaged to be present and those who intend to appear in costumes can secure their togs at the hotel. The ball promises to be one of the largest and most successful mask affairs ever held in this valley. A large number of party-going people of this end of the valley will be present.

TRUSTEES HOLD SPECIAL MEETING.

Ordinance Introduced to Compel Property Owners to Make Sewer Connection—Nine Special Saloon Licenses Issued.

At a special meeting of the City Trustees, held last Tuesday evening with Mayor M. E. Cummings in the chair and a full Board present, an ordinance was introduced and passed to second reading compelling all property owners, who have not already done so, to connect their premises with the new $20,000 sewer, which was laid last fall. Many property owners have neglected to do this, hence the ordinance, which will be put upon final passage at the June meeting of the Trustees next Wednesday.

In accordance with the new liquor ordinance passed by the Trustees a few months ago, permitting bars to keep open after 11 o'clock upon payment of $40 per quarter for such privilege, the following were granted such license: B. Freeman, Palace Hotel; John Steiner, O. K. saloon; A. Pinelli, Victoria saloon; Frank Koening, Union Hotel; Sonoma House; P. Yenni, Welcome Saloon; Lawrence Villa Park; L. Quartaroli, El Dorado Hotel; and S. Cinci, Toscano Hotel.

The Board then adjourned to meet in regular session on Wednesday, June 5th.

70 Years with Coughs

We have had seventy years of experience with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This makes us have great confidence in it for coughs, colds, bronchitis, weak throats, and weak lungs. We want you to have confidence in it, as well. Ask your own doctor what experience he has had with it. He knows. Keep in close touch with him.

One of Ayer's Pills at bedtime will cause an increased flow of bile and produce a gentle laxative effect the day following. Formula on each box. Show it to your doctor. He will understand at a glance. Dose, one pill at bedtime, just one. Made by the J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

WILD WEST SHOW TOMORROW.

A. E. Tower, the Millionaire of this Valley, Donates a Handsome Solid Silver Cup to Winner of Ladies Race.

The Wild West show, which will be held on the Sonoma Valley Driving Club's race track in this city to-morrow (Sunday), is attracting wide attention, and will undoubtedly draw a big crowd to witness the daring feats of riding and other features of the show. A. E. Tower of El Cerito Rancho, the retired millionaire, has donated a handsome solid silver cup for the winner of the ladies race, which is free to all. A number of the most famous bronco busters of the north-west have already arrived in town and will enter into the horsemanship contests, which promises to be the most thrilling ever witnessed here or elsewhere.

The Sonoma Valley Band of twenty-eight pieces will enliven the scene by playing throughout the afternoon. The introduction of the Wild West show here is to enlist the interest of our people in this innocent but exciting pastime. Behind the movement is our leading horse and stock men, who have taken this means toward advertising our valley to the outside world and at the same time affording amusement to our people. That the show will be a big success goes without the saying.

Hay Market.

Somers & Co., in their weekly report on the condition of the hay market for the week ending May 28th, say:

"Hay arrived in San Francisco somewhat more freely during the week than for some time past—a total of 2528 tons being marketed. Both interior and local demands for hay are very light, and the general range of prices is considerably weaker, and in fact, lower than previous quotations. This is occasioned both by heavier arrivals and by the fact that the harvest season is close upon us.

The most interesting feature of the hay situation is the extensive rains which have fallen over the State. Such heavy rain is most unusual for this time of year, and were it not for the fact that the season is very late, the damage to hay and grain would have been very extensive. However, although there was some little hay cut, yet no serious damage has been reported. The benefit to growing grain is inestimable, and it is generally conceded that the State as a whole was materially benefited by this unusually heavy rain.

One or two cars of new hay have arrived, although there is no general movement of new hay to market. It will probably be several weeks yet before any quantity of new hay is ready for shipment, and therefore at the present time, there is no range of prices which can be quoted for new crop.

EL VERANO ITEMS.

Leo Baines and D. Shine of the metropolis, who say this valley is the paradise of America, went on a fishing expedition last Tuesday to Embarcadero. The boys had good luck, especially Mr. Shine, who is an old time expert at the rod. The writer was kindly remembered with a nice mess.

Billy Carr, the noted entertainer of the metropolis, is again at the Parente Villa for the summer. Billy acted as entertainer at the villa last summer and has been doing turns at the different theatres in San Francisco during the winter. We are all glad to have him back with us again.

PECCARIES CAN FIGHT.

Panthers and Even Big Bears Dare Not Attack Them.

Some one has called the porcupine the biggest self advertiser in the woods. It is perfectly true. A more bumptious creature does not exist. Where other animals steal so silently through the jungle that not even a rustle is heard nor the crack of a dry twig the porcupine stamps along, grunting as it goes and rattling its quilled tail as though it owned the country.

Even in the depths of winter or the desolation of a long drought it is the rarest event for other animals to attempt to kill and eat the porcupine, and when they do they seldom if ever succeed.

For the quills of the porcupine are not only extremely hard and sharp, but they have the property of coming away easily from the hide of their owner. Being slightly barbed, they work deep into the flesh of the animal that has been foolish enough to attack the porcupine, and a well known sportsman gives an instance of a lion paying with its life for its foolishness in attacking a porcupine. One of the quills worked into the brain and killed it.

There is another case of a lioness losing her eyesight in similar fashion and several of leopards and panthers being killed by cruelly sharp quills.

The small wild pig of Central America, which is known as the peccary, cares as little for enemies bigger than himself as does the porcupine. No panther, nor even the huge brown or cinnamon bear, dares attack the peccary.

The peccary relies not on quills, but on the power of co-operation. If one member of a drove is attacked the rest instantly combine and go for the attacker. It does not matter if a dozen are killed. The pack never lets go until their enemy is pulled down and reduced to shreds no larger than a knuckle bone.

Yet old trappers say that a man may sit down close by a feeding pack of peccaries and watch them all day. They will never meddle with him so long as he does not touch them.—Pearson's Weekly.

Didn't Need It.

It was the anniversary of his young son's birthday, and the proud father, who felt that he ought to give the lad something, stepped into a bookseller's shop.

"What kind of book would you like, sir?" asked the salesman, to whom the other had confided his purpose.

"Something that would be useful and educative," answered the father, forgetting that he always detested such books in his own boyhood.

"Well, here is a very excellent one on 'Self Help.'"

"Self help!" exclaimed the father. "Ben don't need anything of that kind. You ought to see him at the dinner table!"

Antiquity of Masks.

Masks are of very ancient origin. In a tomb 3,000 years old at Mycenae Dr. Schliemann found two bodies with faces covered by masks of gold. One of the masks represented the head of a lion. Among ancient Greeks the lion mask was a sign of distinction. With the Peruvians of old it was a mark of royal lineage. In a grave of considerable antiquity in Peru a silver mask was found on the head of a mummy. The mummy of a prince who lived in the reign of Rameses II., discovered in a small vault at Memphis, in Egypt, had a mask of gold leaf over the face.

A German Gretna Green.

What Gretna Green was to England in the good old days Helgoland was to the continent. It must have been an inconvenient place to reach when time was of importance, but until the German marriage laws of 1900 came into operation the pastor held a lucrative position. The custom of Helgoland had simplicity to recommend it. All the pastor required was a declaration signed by a magistrate to the effect that the parties were not prospective bigamists. When this affidavit was presented the pastor at once joined the applicants in matrimony.

Wholly Innocent.

The story is told by a traveling man of a pretty young lady who stepped into a music store in a certain town the other day. She tripped up to the counter where a new clerk was assorting music and in the sweetest tones asked, "Have you 'Kissed Me In the Moonlight'?" The clerk turned halfway around and answered, "It must have been the man at the other counter; I've been here only a week."—Buffalo Commercial.
